COUNCIL MEMBER REPORTS

- Mayor Painter
 - Attended the Mayors and Reeves meeting:
 - Minister Hunter elaborated on Trump and wanting to cut income tax. The analogy behind Tariffs being implemented is that the revenue that they are losing from the income tax will be replaced with Tariffs.
 - The province is doing a mapping in Southern Alberta of all the ground water and how much water we have.
 - RMA Representative, Jason Schneider explained that groups can get funding from running casinos. Jason explained that rural communities have a harder time getting Casinos and larger amounts of funding than cities.
 - RMA Representative is asking the Board to come to one of the scheduled Mayors and Reeves meetings and have them explain how the process is conducted to make it fairer for all communities.
 - AM Representative, Deborah.
 - Looking into the grant system for smaller communities.
 - Smaller communities have less than $15,000.00 in grant money available. They are looking into smaller communities having the opportunity for larger dollar grants because we don't have the same revenue as a bigger community.
 - AM will be hosting their Leaders Conference in March.
- Councillor Girhiny
 - Attended the Ski Society meeting:
 - The Society is getting great exposure and support from the community.
 - The Society is having a great influence on our youth at the hill and it's great to see!
